

People

Our team in the United Kingdom of specialist immigration law solicitors and advisors are led by 6 partners who have a total of 27 years of experience in the field of immigration. Within the team, we have 6 SRA regulated solicitors and 150 immigration advisors leading our high-profile clients to the best immigration solutions possible, for the UK and elsewhere in the world. Our teams assist with both corporate and private immigration law headed, supported and supervised by a Senior Manager, Director and Partner. Based in both London and Belfast, our teams are 100% dedicated to immigration and can assist with all types of complexity within this field. Our immigration advisors who are not legally qualified have extensive experience and training and work side by side with their managers to ensure they are complying with SRA regulations.
