Your privacy rights

This section describes the rights of residents of US Privacy Law States and explains how to exercise those rights. Please see the "Your legal rights in relation to personal data" section of the privacy statement for information about additional choices you may have regarding your personal information.

a. Right to know / access

If you are a resident of a US Privacy Law State, under certain circumstances in accordance with applicable law, you have the right to request that we disclose to you specific details about your personal data that we have collected, used, disclosed and sold (which may for some states, such as California, be limited to the past 12 months) and/or a copy of your personal data.

Once we receive your request, we will acknowledge it and either respond in accordance with law, ask for additional information to verify your identity, clarify the nature of your request, let you know if we need more time, let you know if we need to charge a fee (such as if requests are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character, taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information or communication or taking the action requested), or we will inform you if we cannot fulfill any part of your request due to an exception under the law. If we know that your request relates to information we process as a "processor" or "service provider" (or similar term as defined under the Applicable Local Law of the US Privacy Law State) to one of our corporate clients, we will forward your request to the relevant client and cooperate with that client as needed to address your request and/or inform you that your request should be submitted directly to the business on whose behalf we process the information.

b. Right to delete

If you are a resident of a US Privacy Law State, under certain circumstances in accordance with applicable law, you may have the right to request that we delete any of your personal data that we collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions. Once we receive and confirm your valid verifiable request, we will delete, de-identify or aggregate your personal data and direct our service providers to do so, or we will inform you if we cannot fulfill any part of your request due to an exception under the law. If your request relates to information we process as a “processor” or “service provider” (or similar term as defined under the Applicable Local Law of the US Privacy Law State) to one of our clients, we will inform you that your request should be submitted directly to the business on whose behalf we process the information.

c. Right to correct

If you are a resident of a US Privacy Law State, depending on the US Privacy Law State in which you reside, you may, under certain circumstances in accordance with applicable law, have the right to request that we correct inaccuracies in any of your personal data that we maintain.

d. Right to portability

If you are a resident of a US Privacy Law State, under certain circumstances in accordance with applicable law, you may have the right to request that we provide a copy of your personal data that we maintain in a portable and, to the extent technically feasible, readily useable format.

e. Right to opt-out of certain processing

If you are a resident of a US Privacy Law State, depending on the US Privacy Law State in which you reside, you may, under certain circumstances in accordance with applicable law, have the right to opt-out of certain processing of your personal data. More specifically, depending on the jurisdiction in which you are located, you may have the right to:

- (i) opt-out of the sale of your personal information or the use or sharing of your personal data with third parties for purposes of targeted advertising, profiling or cross-context behavioral advertising; and
- (ii) limit the use and disclosure of your sensitive personal information.

Please contact us at privacy@vialto.com for information about our practices and how you may exercise your opt-out rights under applicable law.

f. Submitting a request

To exercise the rights described above, please submit a verifiable request to us at privacy@vialto.com

The verifiable request must:

- Provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected personal data or an authorized representative of such person. Please, however, refrain from sending us sensitive personal data.
- Describe your request with sufficient detail that allows us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with personal data if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the personal data relates to you. Making a verifiable request does not require you to create an account with us. We will only use personal data provided in a verifiable request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make the request.

We will respond to your request within a reasonable timeframe in accordance with applicable law. In some states, such as California, any disclosures we provide may only cover the 12-month period preceding the verifiable request's receipt, as required by law.

g. Non-discrimination

In accordance with applicable law, we will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your US Privacy Law State privacy rights.

II. European Economic Area, Switzerland and United Kingdom Residents

If you are located in the European Economic Area (EEA), Switzerland or the United Kingdom (UK), transfers of your personal data may be made to countries outside of the EEA, Switzerland or the United Kingdom.  - you object to processing for direct marketing purposes;
 - your personal data has been unlawfully processed; or
 - your personal data must be erased to comply with a local law or legal obligation to which we are subject.
- restrict personal data processing, which may include in the following cases:

- object to the processing of your personal data, which may include in the following cases:
 - our legal ground for processing is that the processing is necessary for a legitimate interest pursued by us or a third party; or
 - our processing is for direct marketing purposes.
- The right to data portability, which may include the following:
 - The right to receive your personal data provided by you to us and the right to send the data to another organisation (or ask us to do so if technically feasible) where our lawful basis for processing the personal data is consent or necessity for the performance of our contract with you and the processing is carried out by automated means.
